Tomorrow is a big day!

Yoli is up at night thinking about tomorrow.

Yoli thinks of all the treats she'll be getting tomorrow.

Yoli thinks of all the friends she hasn't seen in a while.

Mommy comes to tuck Yoli in, so she can be bright and lovely tomorrow.

But she lays in bed with one eye open,
till the other eye gives in.

Goodnight Yoli.

It's finally here, the big day!

She gets up from her bed with a huge smile.

She shines and brushes her huge smile alongside mommy.

Mommy packs her healthy treats and combs her hair.

The smile hasn't left Yoli's face not one bit.

They get into the car and sing her favourite tunes all the way to her favourite place.

Yes you guessed it right, it's back to school!

On their arrival, Yoli gives mommy a hug goodbye.

The teacher welcomes Yoli and friends back to school.

Yoli gets many hugs from her many friends.

She sits attentively for class to start.

She shares colours with her friends.

And exchanges treats with them.

Yoli plays ball on the playground.

And listens well in class.

It is home time. Yoli says goodbye to her friends.

Tomorrow is another day.

Yoli gets home and does her homework.

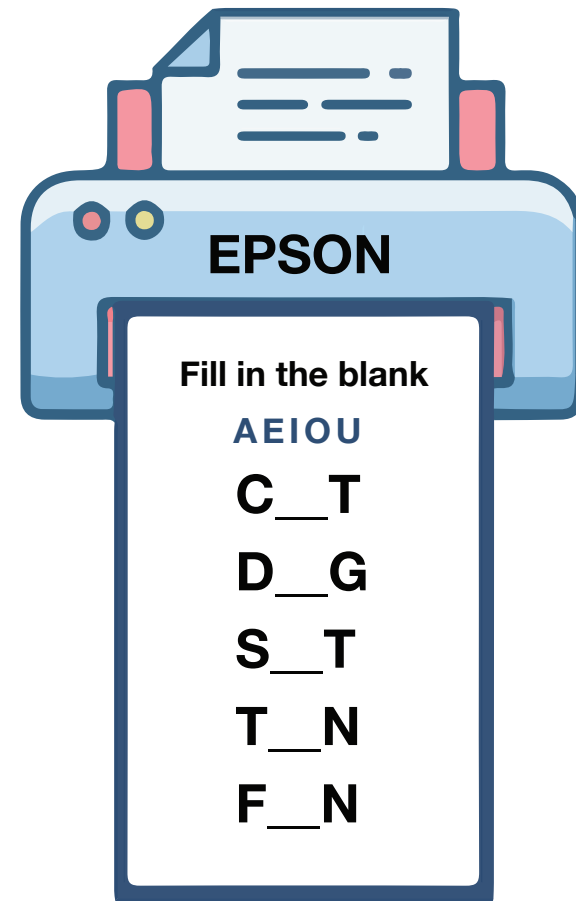

Yoli takes a bath and gets into bed as fast as a squirrel.

For tomorrow is another day, back to school.

The End.
